

"Anyone can get dressed up and glamorous, but it is how people dress in their days off that are the most intriguing." You gottla have ships. It helps you get down the state. It helps you get up in the morning. It's a way of life. Without it, you're nobady, I'm not talking about lots of clathes."

"Fashlon you can buy, but style you passess. The key to style is learning who you are, which takes years. There's no how-to road map to style. It's about self expression and, above all, attitude."
